

Name: _____

KAHO'OLAWÉ

The True Story of an Island and Her People

Kaho'olawé

Write a detail from the story that supports each statement.

is born.

thrives.

is happy.

is thirsty.

is lonely.

is hurt.

is weary.

needs help.

is free.

endures.

persists.

lives.

Name: _____ Possible Answers _____

KAHO'OLAWÉ

The True Story of an Island and Her People

Kaho'olawe

Write a detail from the story that supports each statement.

is born.

Kaho'olawe rises from fire. She is the smallest of the main Hawaiian islands.

thrives.

Plants, birds, whales and dolphins surround the island.

is happy.

Polynesian voyagers make their homes on Kaho'olawe.

is thirsty.

The hungry goats eat everything and rain clouds stop coming.

is lonely.

The US military bombs the island and keeps the people away.

is hurt.

Explosions scare off animals and seabirds and break coral reefs.

is weary.

The island has suffered. Activists protest to stop the bombing.

needs help.

The bombing doesn't stop. People raise awareness.

is free.

Finally, the people get the military to leave Kaho'olawe.

endures.

Debris litters the land and reefs are covered in red dirt.

persists.

Scientists and volunteers remove invasive species and trash.

lives.

People work together to restore and protect Kaho'olawe.